St. James's, April 26.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Beverley, has been presented to the King by Sir James Pennyman, Bart. One of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, of your Town of Beverley in the County of York, with great Humility approach your Throne, and beg your Royal Permission to express our warmest sentiments of Gratitude and Congratulation for the humane and just Measures your Majesty has pursued, in terminating a long and expensive War, and restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace. Happy in the Experience of your Majesty's Paternal Care of the Interests of your People, we look forward, with a well-grounded Confidence, to those various and important National Advantages that may be expected to flow from so auspicious an Event; the Establishment and Duration of the Trade, the Welfare and Prosperity of the British Dominions. It is our most sincere and ardent Wish, that your Majesty may long enjoy the grateful Returns of a faithful and affectionate People, and every Proof of their inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Given under our Common Seal this Seventh Day of April, in the Twenty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

John Hoggard, Deputy-Mayor.
